ARCHDIOCESE OF PHILADELPHIA KICKS OFF THE ## 2022 #IGIVECATHOLIC ADVANCED GIVING PHASE

#iGiveCatholic is nationally recognized as the official Catholic Giving Day, hosted on #GivingTuesday, that celebrates and supports parishes, schools, and charitable ministries.

The Archdiocese of Philadelphia is partnering with The Catholic Foundation of Greater Philadelphia to participate in #iGiveCatholic for the third year in a row.

#iGiveCatholic is nationally recognized as the official Catholic Giving Day. It is celebrated annually on #GivingTuesday (November 29th), which follows Thanksgiving, Black Friday, and Cyber Monday. The Advanced Giving Phase is taking place now through November 28th.

Last year, #iGiveCatholic raised more than $1.7M for 124 Catholic parishes, schools, and charitable ministries within the five-county Archdiocese.

#iGiveCatholic presents an opportunity for Catholics, and all those who support the Church's good works, to affirm their belief in serving others. It also gives parishes, schools, and charitable ministries the chance to rally support for the work of their organizations during a season traditionally associated with giving.

Special recognition goes to our Presenting Level Sponsors: Porter & Curtis and Stradley Ronon Stevens and Young LLP, as well as our Sponsor Level Sponsors: Kennedy Printing, Merrill Lynch, Saul Ewing Arnstein & Lehr LLP, and Troutman Pepper for supporting the 2022 #iGiveCatholic initiative. They are providing prize incentives for all participating organizations, giving them an opportunity to raise extra funds through #iGiveCatholic.

Those wishing to make a gift to a participating organization may visit Philadelphia.igivecatholic.org.  For more information on #iGiveCatholic, visit www.iGiveCatholic.org.
